

Relief Teachers – Early Learning Centre and Junior School

Applications are sought for appropriately qualified teachers interested in relief work at the Early Learning Centre or the Junior School. Applicants should indicate whether they are interested in day to day casual relief work or would prefer blocks of work.

Appropriate academic qualifications and teacher training, as well as a sound understanding of current educational trends and learning styles are required.

Registration with the ACT Teacher Quality Institute which includes a Working with Vulnerable People check is a condition of employment.

For employment at CGGS, a commitment to the ethos of an independent Anglican school is essential.

Applications

Further information can be found on the School's website www.cggs.act.edu.au.

Applications should be made via the online application form on the Employment page of our website <https://employment.cggs.act.edu.au/>. Applications should include a current resume and short cover letter.