

Junior School Coeducator

Applications for this position close: 9.00am, Monday 15 March 2021

- Part-time, contract position
- Commitment to professional learning
- Professional and supportive environment

Who we are

Canberra Girls Grammar School (CGGS) is an independent non-selective Anglican school with an enrolment of approximately 1,400 students. The School has a strong reputation as a leader in the education of girls.

Offering a world-class education including the ACT Board of Senior Secondary Studies, International Baccalaureate Primary Years Programme and Diploma Programme, our intent is to develop young women who are well-educated and who insist on living ethically and purposely. This is an opportunity to join a dedicated, supportive and innovative team in a School committed to excellence.

The Role

We are seeking applications for this part-time, contract position to commence as soon as possible. This is a 24 hour per week position (over 5 days) during student term time only. The hours and days of work will be negotiated with the successful applicant.

Applicants must hold or be in the process of obtaining a Certificate IV in School Age Education and Care or equivalent. Good organisational and interpersonal skills are required. A current First Aid certificate is desirable.

Applicants will be required to provide a current Working with Vulnerable People check prior to commencing employment.

Applications

Further information, including the position description can be found on the School's website <https://employment.cggs.act.edu.au/>.

Applications should be made via the online application form on the Employment page of our website <https://employment.cggs.act.edu.au/>. Applications should include a current resume and short cover letter. Please ensure you upload your documents as PDF files.

Queries regarding this position should be directed via email to employment@cggs.act.edu.au. Please note that applications cannot be accepted via the employment email address.