

Junior Science Teacher

Applications for this position close: 9.00am, Monday 29 November 2021

- Full-time or part-time position
- Commitment to professional learning
- Professional and supportive environment

Who we are

Canberra Girls Grammar School (CGGS) is an independent non-selective Anglican school with an enrolment of approximately 1,200 students. The School has a strong reputation as a leader in the education of girls.

Our intent is to develop young women that are well-educated and who insist on living ethically and purposely. This is an opportunity to join a dedicated, supportive and innovative team in a School committed to excellence.

The Role

The School is looking for a passionate and professional Junior Science teacher for Years 7 to 10. The position will be full-time or part-time and may be ongoing depending on other subject areas. The position will commence on 24 January 2022 to 9 December 2022 (if a contract).

Knowledge of the Science Australian Curriculum would be highly regarded. The Science Faculty share a passion for excellence in teaching and have a record of fostering outstanding student achievement. Collaboration and a commitment to professional learning are highly valued.

Appropriate academic qualifications and teacher training, as well as a sound understanding of current educational trends and learning styles are required.

All teaching staff members are expected to take part in the whole life of the School including participation in pastoral care and involvement in co-curricular School activities.

The Benefits of Working at CGGS

- Remuneration and terms and conditions that compare favourably with those in other school sectors in the ACT
- The support provided for new teachers and emerging leaders to further their careers
- Above minimum rate options for superannuation for permanent staff
- The provision of an Employee Assistance Program
- A cafeteria with an onsite barista
- Free influenza injections
- Free onsite parking
- Fees concessions for members of staff with children at our school
- A generous professional learning budget

Eligibility for registration with the ACT Teacher Quality Institute which includes a Working with Vulnerable People check are conditions of employment. A current first aid certificate is desirable.

Applications

Further information, including the position description can be found on the School's website <https://employment.cggs.act.edu.au/>.

Applications should be made via the online application form on the Employment page of our website <https://employment.cggs.act.edu.au/>. Applications should include a current resume and short cover letter. Please ensure you upload your documents as PDF files.

Queries regarding this position should be directed via email to employment@cggs.act.edu.au. Please note that applications cannot be accepted via the employment email address.